THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE RAMESH RANGANATHAN

W.P.No. 23363 OF 1996

ORDER:

The cut off date for being considered for promotion as Supervisor under the merit promotion scheme was initially fixed as 31.12.1993 by G.O. dated 5.5.1998. The petitioner fell short by two and half months for being considered for promotion. He approached this Court seeking his earlier probationary service to be included for computation of the minimum period of service for regularization. This Court passed an interim order on 4.11.1996 that the petitioner's case be considered but his results not be declared. Subsequently, the Government issued G.O.Rt.No.589 dated 5.5.1998 whereby the cut off date was extended up to 31.12.1995. The petitioner filed W.P.M.P.26004 of 1998 and this Court, by order dated 3.2.1999, directed that his results be declared. The petitioner's results were declared, he was found eligible for promotion and was promoted by order dated 31.3.1999. As such, the cause in the writ petition does not survive adjudication. Since the petitioner has already been promoted as Supervisor consequent upon the cut-off date being extended by the Government, no further orders are necessary in this writ petition.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
